

Coming soon

TO A CINEMA NEAR YOU

MUNICH

27th Jan "Munich" is appointment cinema. Touted as Spielberg's best film since his 1993 classic, "Schindler's List", this film is politically and religiously charged and has the emotional weight to merit the tag of greatness. Reserve your tickets now!

A NEW WORLD

27th Jan Terrence Malick's latest epic. Fans of his poetic meditation on the nature of war, "The Thin Red Line" should be first in line to see Colin Farrell and Q'orianka Kilcher in the telling of America's first hour.

WALK THE LINE

3rd Feb Stars Joaquin Phoenix in his Golden Globe winning portrayal of Johnny Cash. Reese Witherspoon also won for her portrayal of June Carter. Those who were fans of Jamie Foxx in "Ray" will assuredly love this similar biopic.

AEON FLUX

17th Feb The studio refused to screen this film for critics... Always a bad sign! Even Charlize Theron has been quiet about this likely dud.

CASANOVA

17th Feb Heath Ledger and Sienna Miller star in a romantic comedy caper based on the notorious womanizer.

DATE MOVIE

24th Feb From the team who brought you the "Scary Movie" series comes another spoof.

GRIZZLY MAN

3rd Feb A stunning documentary about the life and death of an animal activist who chose to live with bears in the Alaskan wilderness.

FINAL DESTINATION 3

10th Feb How many different ways can a teenager get killed? This film will certainly find out.

GOOD NIGHT & GOOD LUCK

17th Feb "Good Night, and Good Luck" is shot in that crisp, clean black and white that harkens back to a simpler time. Directed by George Clooney, this is a gorgeous retelling of the infamous exploitation of communistic fear that spread in 1950's America.

CAPOTE

24th Feb "Capote" contains one of the most nuanced performances in recent memory. Philip Seymour Hoffman is the hot favorite for a Best Actor Oscar in this tale of Truman Capote's effort to write his revolutionary book, In Cold Blood.

V FOR VENDETTA

17th Mar This film is getting better advanced buzz than any other film in 2006. Based on the graphic novel, this Natalie Portman film looks sure to be a massive hit.

SYRIANA

3rd Mar A gritty political drama dealing with the trail of oil money and power and the corruption that keeps the machine working. Make sure to seek this film out.